Franklin County S.S.
St Albans Police Department

PRESS RELEASE

On June 20, 2023, at approximately 12:43 PM. The St. Albans Police Department was advised of an attempted armed robbery at a retail store on Main Street in the city. There were no reported injuries to store employees.

On arrival, it was learned the lone male suspect had fled the scene prior to police arrival. A description was provided by store employees as well as a direction of travel.

The investigation, including surveillance video, identified a potential male suspect. A short time later Adam Hakey age 33 of St. Albans was located by police and subsequently arrested without incident for the robbery. The edged weapon displayed during the robbery was located and seized as part of the investigation.

Hakey was lodged on $10,000 bail and will appear in Franklin County Superior Court on June 21, 2023.
